

Proclamation

WHEREAS, Rahim Seyedein opened Golden Pin Donuts at 1353 Park Street in 1985; and

WHEREAS, for the next 26 years, Rahim served high quality donuts and beverages to hungry customers; and

WHEREAS, in addition to the delicious food, Rahim created a special atmosphere within Golden Pin Donuts where all felt welcome; and

WHEREAS, because of the warmth and friendliness shown to all, many residents began their day with a stop at Golden Pin Donuts and often stayed for good conversation with friends and neighbors, further solidifying the bonds that hold the Alameda community together; and

WHEREAS, Golden Pin Donuts has been a valuable addition to one of Alameda's downtown business districts.

NOW, THEREFORE, BE IT RESOLVED, that I, Marie L. Gilmore, Mayor of the City of Alameda, hereby declare April 19, 2011 as in the City of Alameda and call on all residents to join me in recognizing him for his contribution to the Park Street Business District for the past 26 years, to express sincere appreciation for a job well done, and to wish him well.

Marie L. Gilmore
Mayor
